

QUANTROS

Can you access safety, quality and billing information in real time?

Quantros IRIS clients can

Regulations are increasing in number and complexity. Resources are limited and strained. Applications, departments and challenges are ever changing. Making the best and most informed decisions is more difficult than ever. Your organization possesses valuable data -- but it's not available for action.

Bringing the Pieces Together:

Your data is there, you need IRIS to access and use it.

Quantros IRIS Executive

IRIS Executive is a clinical business intelligence suite that leverages data from across your organization's quality, safety and billing systems. It enables managers to make the clinical, financial and operational decisions that support quality and patient safety goals.

Quantros IRIS Executive can help hospitals with these challenges

Hospitals must:

- » Gather more data
- » Apply new metrics
- » Align the corporation
- » Reduce risk
- » Make patients happier and safer
- » Comply with rigorous performance standards

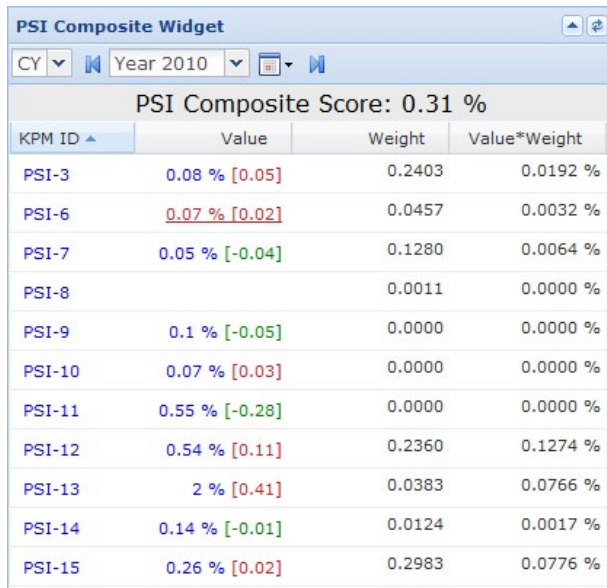

The obstacles include:

- » Manual error-prone processes
- » Cumbersome decision making
- » Expensive and unconnected legacy systems
- » Outdated and obsolete processes
- » Fragmented risk management
- » Multiple databases

The IRIS Family

IRIS Executive gets the right information into the right hands at the right time. Because it's Software-as-a-Service based, it reduces the cost of implementing and maintaining a business intelligence hardware and application package.

IRIS Executive is the first solution in the powerful IRIS family.

A New Perspective

Information is available in a streamlined visual format that users configure themselves to best support their daily responsibilities and activities. The single repository of accurate data helps align facility, corporate and departmental goals. This enables managers to make the best decisions possible.

Data you can use:

- » Trends over time
- » Comparatives
- » Thresholds and goals

The WOW Factors

Healthcare professionals have the right to be delighted, and not just satisfied, with their applications. IRIS offers some wows:

- » Focuses on high risk and cost areas, such as hospital acquired conditions or value-based purchasing
- » Configurability and ease of use
- » Peer comparison capabilities
- » Mashup of quality, safety and claims data.
- » Manage new pay-for-performance initiatives, readmits, HACs, PSIs
- » You don't have to build it, staff it, or manage it
- » Automatic integration of Quantros application data
- » SaaS model and streamlined interface enables rapid adoption and ROI

Focus on Driving Your Organization Forward

Using old data to drive improvement processes is not optimal. With IRIS Executive, clients can use up-to-date data and analytics to Translate Information into Insight.
